“ We are deeply sorry to hear about Kenny and Kathy. They were always a joy to talk with, and Always laughing and enjoying life. He used to drive up on our yard and honk at Pat and scare him so, then laughing, and then we would all have great conversation. Kenny was a nice classmate and always having fun. We will miss Kenny and Kathy. Can not still believe this. Memories are our wealth in life. Keep them close to your hearts.

“ Kenny was the best. he always thought of others. when my oldest son was a toddler , i lived with Mom and Dad. his toys would be all over Mom's house. Kenny would come and visit. one day he came and he had a toy box he had built from left over wood in the barn. it was good sized. i had it for years. my boys loved it . they would take all their toys out of it and they would sit in it because it was their boat or a race car. I told them about Kenny building it . I am sure they will be missed dearly. Love to all . I remember his laugh. it was like Uncle Red. Kenny was my cousin. Virginia

“ RIP Kenny! You are such a good person. What makes me laugh most about you is your sexy dance moves you once tried to do with me before my husband really knew who you were (many yrs ago). All was good though! He found out soon who you were and how harmless you actually were. You are just a big teddy bear! You will be truly missed! Take care of KJ and do what you guys do best...raise all kinds of hell together where you are.
