“ To the Wines family ;
I am very sorry for your loss. I had the pleasure of working for and with Mr Wines over the course of the last 14 years. He was a great leader and an excellent teammate. I learned alot from working with him and will miss him dearly. He will surely never be forgotten within the Tenneco family.##imported-begin##Mark Moore##imported-end##

“ I worked with Andy for the last 15 years and under his strong leadership learned a valuable lesson about life. He was a very strong leader and taught his co-workers all about teamwork. When things had to be done on time, he was the first one to put on his gloves and get-ur-done. The picture's on his desk of his grandchildren often brought a smile to his face and a conversation about how much they meant to him. His last few days at Tenneco, we would set in the breakroom and he would talk about beating the cancer and enjoying life. I prayed often for him and in the end, he did win the battle. In heaven he will be pain free. May God bless all of you. Marlene Slone##imported-begin##Marlene Slone##imported-end##

“ Dear Vicki and Family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Although I just met you and Andy a few months ago, I thought both of you were truly amazing people! Andy was in the hospital at that time. He was able to smile and crack jokes even with IV's and monitors surrounding him. You both went through one of lifes greatest challenges. I wish you comfort in your heart and strength to see you through your days and nights until you meet again.

Sincerely,

“ Vickie and Family,

I had the opportunity of working with your loved one from '93 through '01. Andy was a good listener and teammate during our time working together at Tenneco Ligonier. Upon my return working for Tenneco Corporate engineering the last few years, I had the opportunity to visit with him again as I passed through Ligonier. Same 'Ole consistent Andy Wines. He was and will always be a good person in my memories.

Respectfully,

“ I was so saddened to hear of Andy's passing. He will certainly be missed. He was my supervisor for a time at Tenneco....always a fair man, a good listener, a very good sense of humor, and very down to earth. When they talk about "cooler heads will prevail", that was Andy. We will all miss him dearly. My deepest sympathy. My prayers go out to you.##imported-begin##Cindy Lemberg##imported-end##
