“ Ann and I were friends since elementary school in Nevada and have stayed in touch to the present time via Christmas and birthday notes. It was always such fun to ride the school bus to the McClain farm and stay overnight with her family. I especially remember riding the wagon to gather the maple sap and watching it being boiled into syrup in their woods. Her long braids in elementary school always fascinated me! She called me right after receiving my card for her 88th birthday. Fond memories and sympathy to all her family.
