Even though I didn't personally know Ann, I kind of felt like I got to know her through my good friend, Brenda. She seemed like she was a wonderful person and Brenda has lots of memories of her. My condolences to your entire family and may God keep you in His arms and give you peace and comfort. I will be keeping you in my prayers!

“ Ann was my babysitter, but I always called her Annie. So many wonderful memories of her and Jack. I still love peanut butter and jelly toast, and mac and cheese with hotdogs. Every time I have them I think of Annie. The world was a better place because of these 2 amazing people. My sympathies to her family and friends.

“ *Tim and family,
Although I never had the pleasure of meeting your Mom, I feel she was a very special lady; having touched so many lives in positive ways. I am so thankful God gave us a memory to bank all of the beautiful moments we share with our loved ones. In the days ahead, may you find peace and comfort as you recall those treasured times. God bless.*

“ To the Lininger families,

I am sorry to hear the loss of your grandmother. You are in our prayers. It was nice to hear stories about your grandma through Joe during our different talks through the years.
