devoted homemaker who lovingly raised her family and worked alongside her husband on the family farm. She was active in the church, serving in the Women's Guild, helping with church dinners, and supporting countless church activities. She also served as a 4-

H Advisor, sharing her time and talents with area youth.

In her spare time, Anna enjoyed sewing, playing cards, gardening, vacationing with her mowed. Above all, she was dedicated to her family, church, and community, and her strong work ethic and caring spirit will be fondly remembered by all who knew her.
