“ Anna was adored by many. As a child, I ran around with her great niece, Annie and she always opened her home to us kids. I can still hear her hearty laugh. God bless you, Annna!

“ She was a very special Lady. I remember her as an aid at the Forest school when I was young, she was so kind to me. It was a blessing to have known her.

“ Anna was such a nice lady. I have fond memories of growing up the street from she and Claude. She always took the time to wave when I drove by. The West Zimmerman Street neighborhood is poorer by her passing.
