“ Dearest Family of Anna,

I don't know if you will ever see this or not, but I am hopeful that you will. I am currently doing research on Anna's husband, Lewis, and am trying to find as much information as possible on him with particular focus on his significant life events and his death. If there is anything you could share with me about him and/or him and Anna together, please let me know. I am sorry for your loss of Anna. She sounds like a very special and accomplished woman. God bless and thank you for anything you can share.

“ I will miss Aunt Annie dearly. One of the things I always think about is having such a great time as a kid with Aunt Annie and the whole family at her cottage in Canada. We had such a great time there & Aunt Annie loved entertaining the family.##imported-begin##Jerry
