“ My deepest sympathy to all of you with the loss of Anne. She was a friend to me for over fifty years. I first met her at the Carnegie public library at the age of ten. She and Jane Dean became wonderful friends to me over the years. We would go to the antique shops and I would ride along to help load the car. Anne was on the museum board when I was curator. She was an artist in the truest sense and was such a organizer for the historical society's 60 year anniversary. I remember the beautiful artwork she did for that. Then there were the style shows the museum sponsored. She and Jane would always dress period costumes for the day. What fun we would all have! In the later years I would always enjoy visiting with her at Westbrook. How we would talk about the good times. I will miss her dearly but look forward to the day when we shall meet over there to be reunited again!
