“ *Dear Annette,
When you passed I lost my best friend. We shared everything and even in your darkest moments, when we were apart, you called me for comfort and reassurance. I fell in love with you the first time our eye's connected and you won my heart, which is a hard thing to do. My heart will go on and you will fill the biggest part. I don't know where my life will take me from here, but you will be holding my hand all the way. I know the pain your family is feeling right now and my thoughts are with them. I know you are well and happy and that is all I ever wanted for you.
Love Rick*

“ I know your hearts are heavy right now. But in the days to come your smile will return as you remember the good times you shared with Annette. Our dear Lord Jesus suffered much so that one day in the near future we will no longer experience the pain of losing our loved ones. Revelation 21:4 promises, "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH WILL BE NO MORE, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain, be anymore..." Until then, may this promise from God give you peace and calm your aching hearts. With deepest Sympathy, Joyce Brooks
