Annie C. Harr

Rejoice! I am no longer here. I am with my best friend "Jesus"!

Annie was born to Charles Cushing (C.C.) and Mable (Saunders) Trefry on Dec. 2, 1920 she was the twelfth child of fourteen. Her childhood home was the historical "Dodge House" 1744 a stately colonial in Beverly, MA.

Her grandfather was captain C.K. Trefry a sea captain of the "Brisk of Yarmouth" Nova Scotia 1877. Gone before her were her parents 6 brothers and 4 sisters. She was married to Rev. Carl Harr on June 17, 1949 and he preceded her in death 10 months before.

She is survived by 3 children Stephen Harr, Tim(Angie)Harr, and Gary Wess Harr all of Upper Sandusky. Annie is also survived by 2 brothers Frank Trefry, Sam Trefry, and 1 sister Vera Reynolds all of Massachusetts, grandchildren Bryan Harr,Oakdale,CT, Summer Harr, Findlay, Nick (Ashley)Harr,Oakdale,CT and great granddaughter Zoe Alexis.

Mrs. Harr a Nazarene ministers wife, enjoyed playing piano, the organ and singing. She taught children in Church, Bible School, her Day Care Center, and in her home for a total of 60 years. She retired from Harr's Day Care which she first opened in 1963 as Harr's Stay & Play Center and more recently known as Castle of Kids where she loved and cared for children in the community.

Annie was greeted in heaven by her heavenly father, husband, parents, brothers, sisters and friends who went before her.

Annie C. Harr age 88 formerly of N. 7th St. died at the Wyandot County Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation Center on Sat. Jan. 24, 2009 at 2:24 a.m.

The family will greet friends at Bringman Clark Funeral Home on Tues. Jan. 27, 2009 from 2-4 p.m. & 6-8 p.m. A funeral service will be held Wed. Jan. 28, 2009 at 10:00am in the Bringman Clark Funeral Home with Robert Chew officiating. Burial will be in the Oak Hill Cemetery, Upper Sandusky, OH. Memorials may be made to the American Red Cross or the charity of the donor's choice in care of Bringman Clark Funeral Home 226 E. “ To my cousins, Tim, Steve, and Wes:
I am so sorry for your loss. My heart shares in your sorrow and rejoices in your hope. I treasure the memories of Aunt Annie especially when our families got together for Thanksgivings, etc. over the years. I will be praying for God's peace for you. Precious in the sight of the Lord, is the death of His saints!
Love, Bev###imported-begin##Beverly Haneberg###imported-end##

“ Sincere Condolences:

From Sister Veronica E. Reynolds and Nephews Bill and Ron Reynolds and Families.

We wish you... our Cousins Wess, Tim, and Steve our Sincere Condolences for the loss of your Mother and our Aunt... Annie C. Harr.

As stated before at the passing of your dad "though time and distance has separated us, these many years, you all have been, and still are, a part of our family." We love you and feel an emptiness and loss with both your Mom and your Dad's passing. The only comfort we have is to know that God took them and they are in a much better place.

With Sympathy, The Reynolds###imported-begin##Charles W. Reynolds###imported-end##

“ Anne was my fourth grade Sunday School teacher at the Fostoria First Church of the Nazarene. She was a wonderful teacher who impacted my life greatly. I can still remember some of the passages of Scripture she encouraged and helped me to memorize. She was a talented teacher, and I am also very grateful to have been the recipient of the Harr Scholarship for attending MVNU. Anne had a great impact on my life and was a wonderful and faithful servant of God. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

“ Anne Harr was my Sunday School teacher at The First Church of the Nazarene in Fostoria. She was a wonderful teacher who taught me Bible verses that I treasure to this day. My deepest sympathies go out to the family, and rejoice with them knowing that Anne has finally made it home with Jesus.##imported-begin##Christopher Brooks##imported-end##

“ Steve, My deepest sympathy to you, and your family. I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of your Mother. I remember the times when I worked with you, you always shared fond memories of your Mother and Father. I always enjoyed those times and especially the love you have for your family. Steve keep those memories close to your heart. Your Mother is smiling down on each and everyone of you.~~ You are in my prayers~~ Sincerely Eloise and Dave##imported-begin##Eloise Salyers Deline##imported-end##
