“ always friends <3

*I could skip a heartbeat, and I would survive,
I could be in a car crash, and still be alive.
The clouds could fall out of the sky,
The oceans could disappear, and all turn dry.*

*These things in life are all bad I know,
but there's far worse things,
just thought you should know.*

*Life would not be the same without someone like you,
You're there when I need you to help me through.
Through the good times and through the bad,
Be them happy, or be them sad.*

*I don't have to be with you, to know you're there,
We don't have to see each other, to know that we care.
We could be apart for years upon end,
and still remain the best of friends.*

*Life goes on, and people change,
And through it all, our friendship shall remain the same.
That's such as a life, and how things come to be.
Just thought you should know,
HOW MUCH YOU MEAN TO ME.*

“ I only knew Bailey for a short time, she was a lovely open and caring friend who I met purely by accident online whilst talking with some friends in the United States. I knew of her illness and fell out of touch when my email account got hacked and had to change accounts. I was saddened to learn that she passed earlier this year as she truly was a wonderful friend and person.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. All I can think about is little bailey from across the street. It's been years since I've seen her but I would think of her from Time to time. My last memory of bailey was the night her dad brought her to the skating rink and I hadn't seen her in a while she come up to me trying very hard not to fall and gave me a big hug. She asked me if I'd skate with her so I spent my night skating backwards holding her hands trying not to let us both fall. Bailey was so sweet and full of energy. Even tho I was much older then her I enjoyed her company and always loved having her around. She will be greatly missed. My heart aches to hear of her passing but I'm at peace knowing she will never be sick again.

“ *Bailey was my best friend, threw the years we grew distant but she always made me laugh. I was there for her and she was there for me. 9th grade when I first met her had home ech together. We messed up on so much but somehow we always got an A on our project.
Instead of chopping the carrots up for our carrot cake Bay sliced em. So we had carrot chunk cake. I miss her but I know she always be with us in our hearts and Memories...till we meet again Bailey.<3*
