“ Some of you may remember me, but most won't. I especially remember, Debbie & Annie & got to know Jr. better later in life from his visits to Mommy's house (Aunt Faye) with Basil. We are so sorry to learn of Uncle Basil's death and will miss his aggravating me about taking my Dad's car & "running the wheels off"! That's what he used to tell me everytime that he saw me from a child until the last time I saw him. I guess this just set me off when I was small. I loved his sense of humor. He loved to tease! I found out when my Dad died so peacefully that it was better to give him up than to see him lay & suffer. Besides, I know I will see him again in Heaven. Death don't have to be a "forever" thing if we are believers in the Lord Jesus. We are praying for peace & comfort for you at this time. We will be forwarding our donations in lieu of flowers & we hope this will help with the burden of funeral expenses. Love & Prayers, Kay, Gene & Family###imported-begin##Drema Kay Fisher Harper###imported-end##

“ I know most of you would not know me. I am Opal's daughter. I was out of town this weekend when I found out about Basil. I have a doctor's appointment and will not be able to attend the service. I lost my mother a few years ago after a long illness from a stroke, and I understand what you are going through. Again, my deepest sympathy.

Love,

“ I just want to let you know how sorry I am for your loss. Basil was a good man who really loved his family. When I would go to visit him, he would often speak of the family and it was evident that there was a lot of love there. I saw him just a week or so before he died, and he looked so good. He said he was feeling better, breathing better, and was so glad for the good care he was getting at Fairhaven. I was so surprised when I was notified of his death. It must have been a surprise for you all as well. It was a blessing to get to know him. May you find a measure of peace in his passing as you commemorate his life and recall the fond memories you have of him. God bless you!##imported-begin##Pastor Jackie Underhill##imported-end##
