She was my mom's sister and always had a cherry pie or a cookie for me when I was home from my adventures.

“ My memories of Beulah: 1) when she would come to Lima with Buck and sit on Mom and Dad Cook's porch and just laugh and talk for hours--I so enjoyed that. Memory 2) every time I came home to visit at Mom and Da Cook's she would make a point of coming to see me. She, Mom, Ruthie, and I would usually go shopping or just sit around and talk. I remember us all going to the glass factory there in Lima--FUN! She was a special lady who could make you feel 'special'.

Loved Her!
