“ I never met this wonderful father grandfather and great grandfather. All I know is his girls are so kind and gracious which I know he was proud to call his family. Wishing the light beholds him in God's kingdom.

“ The first time I met Billy was when we got together for a political support event. Billy was happy, a proud veteran who loved God, his country and family. Seeing him wheeling Rosemarie around and loving on her and doting on her was so sweet. He had a smile every time I saw him. Prayers, Anita Kraviec

“ I will never forget my first cousin. We were the youngest and became close. Growing up in rural NC was a glorious thing. Billy and I were blessed to be from a family that had close ties. Sunday dinners at our grandparent's house and riding to school together for years. RIP Cuz!!! I love you!!
