ME

“ My aunt Bonnie was always fun to be around. She loved to laugh and the more you laughed the louder she would get. She was one of a kind. I remember when I was a kid visiting her and uncle Robert and her showing me all of the clowns she collected, her taping her soaps on VHS tapes, her stereo that she had with records. She crocheted and she made me smurfs. She would play video games like Mario and as a kid, I always thought that was so cool. I'm glad I went and seen her, uncle Bill and uncle Robert the last time I was up there. She didn't have much to say then because she was watching her game shows(lol). She will be missed. I will miss the laugh that she would do when she would be acting silly!
