“ This amazing gorgeous woman was everything to me. She was smart and talented I was always trying to push her to do more with her artistic abilities. she was the only person tht truly cared enough about me, that she took the time to actually get to know me. The first time I met her I was so nervous I couldn't look at her when I talked to her"aj it's kinda cute, but why won't you look at me when you talk to me"...." you're way to beautiful to be sitting here with me. I won't be able to talk just admire you. And I'm nervous idk why I never am but I'm always nervous with you....." from her best days to her worst days I never seen her in another way she was suppose to be my wife, we was suppose to change the world together....

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Bryce's passing. I can remember being in Mr. Webb's history class passing notes back and forth, getting caught and him pretending to read it out loud. She was such a kind person. Condolences to her children, family, and friends.
