“ Cara was one of the sweetest women I had ever met. Working with her for 5+ years, she never failed to stop for a hug and brighten my day by telling me stories of her grandchildren, dogs, and husband. She truly had a love for others that is rare to find these days and she will be very very dearly missed. I pray for her family and loved ones, all people she spoke about with so much love and adoration. A beautiful woman with a beautiful soul ☐
