“ Carol, it has been an honor to be your brother!
A fun time remembered: My sisters; Helen, Carol, Jeanette and Mom moving furniture aside in the living room. It had a hard wood floor, and they would dance like they were on American Band Stand!. Carol sure could "cut a rug"!
Tom, thank you for taking such good care of my sister.
Carol, you are an example of a caregiving spirit. Keep on smiling and dancing!

“ Blessed to have known Toni. Blessed to call both she and her family, my own. I know that the common reference of family is usually defined in relation by blood. I used to see it that way...until I met the Niederkohrs. They grew into my family over the years. The boys, my brothers and Tom and Toni much like parents. Like most parents do...they usually have to ground their children at times. However, it usually ends as the child enters adulthood. No one gave Toni that memo. For one week, in my mid 30s...she grounded me! I wasn't allowed over...for a week. I THOUGHT she was kidding...until I showed up 3 days into the week. She made it VERY CLEAR that it was real. Toni was real...You never wondered where you stood...she ALWAYS let you know. I loved it. I'll love her and have fond memories of her until the day that I also leave this world. God Bless The Niederkohr Family. Love You Always.
