Dear Mike, Jennifer, Steve, Nan and families, I was heartbroken to learn of Carol's passing. Carol was an amazing and beautiful person who blessed my life (in so MANY ways) and the lives of many others. She was kind, generous, devoted, thoughtful, and possessed an endless sense of humor which brightened many a day. She loved her family and her God above all else. There are so many stories/memories I cherish from times we shared. Praying for you all and asking the Lord to comfort and strengthen you during this difficult time of loss. We have been out-of-town and unable to be there for Carol's visitation which is disappointing. Some day I would love to share stories of fun times we enjoyed through the years. Sending love and hugs, Jan Bair
