“ Our condolences to the entire Balduf family. Another pillar from the neighborhood on CH61 is gone, but won't soon be forgotten. I sure have tons of great memories of him ranging from his post work relaxing on the porch with a pipe and a beer, to massive leaf raking episodes, home made wine, wood working in the basement, and camping in "the back 40". Great times. Most of all, I remember and am thankful for him giving me one of my first ever airplane rides. I think that and shooting rockets with Ed sort of set the stage for my career.

God speed Chuck!
