“ I always loved running into Uncle Charlie around town: whether it was him buying lotto tickets, shopping at DG, or when he would stop in at the insurance office when I was filling in for my mom. He was always so ornery! He will be greatly missed, but I am also happy for him to be reunited with Carol. Many prayers for the Wright family!

“ *My sympathy and prayers in the loss of dear Charles. Many great memories of him when I was growing up. He was good friends with my mom and dad.
I am visiting my daughter in California, or I would be at visitation.
Again, my sympathies.
