“ Jack, Patsy and family,
So very sorry to hear about Chuck. I remember him playing the snare drums in high school. Also, some exciting basketball games where he was a player. Those were happy years.
Just wanted to express my sincere sympathy.

Zimmerman St. lost another fine resident.

“ Chuck was always a wonderful person to be around, whether in the classroom or in an athletic environment. I will miss his smile and warm greetings that I was fortunate enough to receive whenever I saw him.##imported-begin##Paul L. Gordon##imported-end##

“ My brothers James and Cris Hamilton worked with Chuck at Golden Giant over the years and I came to know him through them. I worked with Chuck's mother, Francis Cramer, as a teenager growing up in Forest in the late 70's/early 80's. Chuck, like his mother Francis, always impressed me as a straight shooter; you could count on him to be honest and to 'tell it like it is'. My most recent memory of Chuck was a day back in late 2005 when Chuck, my brothers James and Cris and Jim's son-in-law Joe and I had a 'wood cutting' party to clear some trees on Chuck's property and to lay up wood for Chuck's use in his garage stove that winter. We all enjoyed the fellowship from the hard work in the autumn weather. That evening after we finished, Chuck regaled us with his humor over a few cold drinks and also shared memories of years past when he, Jim and Cris once worked together at Golden Giant. We will all miss Chuck. I wish to express my deepest sympathy to his family during this time of grieving.##imported-begin##Ted Hamilton##imported-end##
