“ I was best friends with Deanna in Jr High. My family moved away from Upper after that. Deanna’s mom and dad were wonderful people and they always made me feel like part of the family. Deanna was a wonderful, loving and caring person and everyone who ever knew her was touched by her. Pat Sims

“ So sorry to hear of Deanna’s passing. I remember her from Upper Sandusky High School. I remember her smile and walking down the hall with her.

“ As one of the many children that Deanna babysat, I still remember swimming in the kiddie pools during the summer, walking to the park and feeding the ducks bread, and playing in the kitchen corner cabinet of her house. Deanna had a positive influence on my childhood, and she will certainly be missed.
