“ *Dear Bev and family,
Our deepest sympathy to all of you and to Bruce, Sue and Nancy and families...
Denny was such a stand-out personality in our USHS Class of '62...always with a welcoming smile and that special look in his eyes - one knew that there was some humorous thought about to create lots of laughter.
May you be comforted in the knowledge that his voice still echoes and his memory lives on in those whose lives he touched. Fritz and Sue (Strasser) Smith '62*

“ When I was a youngster, maybe 5 or 6 or so, I can remember Uncle Denny being really ornery. He would come over to the house in the afternoon and have coffee with my folks. He always showed an interest in what I had been up to....or at least he made me believe he did. He would ask me to explain in detail I didn't yet understand....and when I would get frazzled at his antics and questioning he would laugh and say...."My Gosh! You're just a squirrel!"

I took so much pride in being called Squirrel. I looked forward to Uncle Denny coming out to farm. He never said No when I'd ask to ride in his combine. He knew in just a few quick passes in the field I'd be curled up in the back window behind his seat sleeping, just like a squirrel should be.

So when, just a few weeks ago, Uncle Denny stopped out to see my folks. I couldn't have been more proud for him to give my 2 year old son a thorough questioning and "I mean I want details!" of his recent fishing trip back at the pond. Thanks Uncle Denny
