My sincere sympathy to you, Frances, and the entire Schilling family on the loss of Don. I always enjoyed having him stop by the paint counter at work just to say hi. I will miss that the most! So appreciate both of you and our friendship through the years. My love, prayers at this difficult time for all of you.

“ Memories....there are so many, not sure where to begin. The Stuckey and Schilling families shared incredibly fun times. Decorating Salem Church for the Christmas season. Frances getting chased out the church sanctuary by an overly friendly bat. Bob Stuckey Sr and Donald surveying the local landscapes and crops on their motorcycles. Creating bike, horse trails though the fields and woods so that the kids could connect. I truly appreciate the friendship and kindness that you always showed to my parents and those around you! My heart and prayers are with the Schilling family during this difficult time. The stars in heaven are shining brighter today.
