

Doris M. Ray

January 8, 2012

Doris May Ray, age 83 died January 8, 2012 in Upper Sandusky, OH. She was born October 5, 1928 in Chicago, IL to the late Harold and Ellen (Ehman) Smith.

She married Allison Butterbrodt in 1953 and Troy Ray Jr. in 1961, both preceded her in death. Surviving are 4 sons Dave Butterbrodt, Salem, WI, James (Leigh) Butterbrodt, Kenosha, WI, John Butterbrodt, Trevor, WI, Troy (Jackie) Ray, Knoxville, TN, a daughter Nancy (Don) Bower, Upper Sandusky, OH, a sister Susanne Faust, Pontiac, IL, 4 grandchildren, 1 great grandson, 9 step-grandchildren, 8 step great grandchildren, many cousins, nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by a brother Harold James Smith, Jr., 3 sisters Margaret Burfield, Carol Bellei, and Jane Smith who died in Infancy.

Mrs. Ray attended primary schools in Chicago and graduated from high school in Ingleside, IL. During her career she was employed as an Accredited Record Technician, Director of Medical Records and a Consultant for; VA Hospital in North Chicago, Victory Memorial Hospital, in hospitals and extended care facilities throughout IL, WI, W VA and OH.

She was former member of the American Medical Record Asso., Ohio Medical Record Asso. And twice was the President of the Kenabwa Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Asso.

She enjoyed reading and watching soap operas.

A Chapel Service and Burial will be held at All Saints Cemetery in Kenosha, WI at 1:00 p.m. Fri. Jan. 13, 2012.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made the donor's favorite charity.

Bringman Clark Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.