“ I first met Dortha (and Robert) when I worked at the Findlay District for the United Methodist Church. They came to the office to drop off Festival of Sharing Kits. It was the beginning of a beautiful friendship. When I became the Director for the Wyandot County Council on Aging, Dortha would make rugs for us to sell at our craft bazaar out of donated fabrics. She was a wonderful, caring lady with a giving, missional heart. She will be missed by many.
