

Douglas E Grubel

December 12, 1954 - February 7, 2015

Douglas E. Grubel, age 60 of Sycamore, died at Wyandot Memorial Hospital surrounded by his family on Saturday Feb. 7, 2015 at 1:35am. He was born on Dec. 12, 1954 in Upper Sandusky to the late John Owen Grubel and Anna D. (Lawhead) Grubel whom survives in Upper Sandusky. On Aug. 22, 1981 he married Carol Schoenberger which was the beginning of a life time partnership.

Mr. Grubel is survived by a daughter Kristen (Sean) Duffy of Twinsburg, OH, son Stephan (Elizabeth) Grubel of Upper Sandusky, a sister Beth (Kenneth) McVicker of Temperance, MI, two brothers Keith (Joan) Grubel of Rossville, IN and Dennis (Nedra) Grubel of Clairmont, CA. He was preceded in death by an infant brother Nelson Grubel.

Doug graduated from Mohawk High school class of 1973 and in 1975 graduated from OSU Agricultural Technical Institute in Wooster. He became a farmer and had worked for Millington/Worthington Plastics as a laborer and other factories in the area.

Mr. Grubel was Past Master of the former Wyandot Lodge which consolidated with Enterprise Masonic Lodge #579, Sycamore. He was a member of the Upper Sandusky Council #98 and a member of McCutchen Chapter #96 Royal Arch Masons, Order of Eastern Star Past Patron of William Myers Chapter #196 which merged with Warpole Chapter #366 presently serving as Worthy Patron. He also was a 35 year Masonic member and 26 year member of Eastern Star.

Mr. Grubel was an active member of the Trinity United Church of Christ, McCutchenville, where he was an Elder, Deacon and participated in the church dart ball league. He was a Mohawk Warriors sports fan and he especially enjoyed watching his daughter in the marching band. He was an avid OSU, Cincinnati Reds, and Bengals fan. He enjoyed his many farm dogs especially Baxter. His devotion as a husband and father will be missed by his family.

“ It's not hard to roll back forty some years and remember Doug getting on the school bus each morning. If he ever had a bad start on the day, I never saw it. He always smiled and always spoke softly. We were friends. I will miss him.
