“ *Earl has been my neighbor ever since i can remember.Pretty much ever since i was a small child.My father died when i was 10yo back in 1984.I can still remember Earl coming to my fathers funeral and specifically telling me "You have my deepest sympathy" and "You are the man of the house now."After my father died,Earl was kinda like a "male figure" i could talk to and ask questions about things i didnt understand.Things such as mowing the lawn,working on a car,or just tinkering around in the garage.Just things that boys typically learn from their own fathers.I can still remember him teaching me how to mow the lawn with his little tiny green Bolens mower and teaching me how to put shingles on a roof when he was building a shed for us in our backyard.As i got older i would still borrow his tools or occasionally just chat with him in the backyard.There are so many things that this man taught me.He was highly intelligent and an excellent carpenter.Earl thank you for being my friend and thank you for teaching me things a guy should know when growing up.You will be missed! ---

“ You have my deepest sympathy on the loss of Mr. Ruth. He was such a kind man. I always enjoyed chatting with him when I was a waitress at the Village restaurant many years ago. I can still see him sitting at the counter drinking his coffee. Prayers!

“ I will always remember Earl was picking on me when I was delivering papers in the courthouse when he worked there and when he would come to Duane and Barb's house for our family dinners. He will be greatly missed and he was loved by many , my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Sharon Kindle
