“ My wife, Marty, and I are so sorry to hear of Edgar's passing. As kids the Rathburn family spent many great times on the farm and at the park and pool in downtown Upper along with the McCarthy and Wilhelm families. I only wish we could have spent more time together. It was always a ball especially at the farm. We kind of lost track over the years but will never forget those days.

Please accept our condolences on Edgar's passing for the whole family. Jo and Tom have been staying in touch thru e-mails. That is how we learned of Edgar.

“ You have my sincerest sympathy...
I really liked Edgar a lot but haven't seen him in 40 years...As kids, Mary Bud and myself always had a good time at their farm...Uncle Fred was always fun to be around...
I'm so very sorry your Dad had cancer...
He is at peace now in heaven and that is good...
I will keep all of you in my prayers...
It is so traumatic to lose a parent...

God Bless all of you...
