“ Dear Bells, I am so grateful to have shared the love of your darling parents. I met and came to love them both while working at Boyd Drug Store. When Wayne came through the door the entire place would light up. But your Mama touched my life with such beauty, grace, and compassion. She came into my life again on the golf course, as a new player, she took me under her wing and guided me with her loving, tender strength. Nothing that is loved is ever lost. You and yours are in my thoughts and prayers. Most Sincerely, Kelie Shuster Rogers###imported-begin##Kelie Shuster Rogers###imported-end##

“ Edie was a classy lady. I would see her at church when home visiting my folks and she would always have a great smile on her face and always looked like a million bucks. I wish I could have played a round of golf with her! Peace be with her family as they mourn her loss.###imported-begin##Debbie Spearman###imported-end##

“ Don, Rick & Jeff

It's impossible to think about my childhood and not include all of you and times spent at your home.

Edie was easily the classiest women I've ever known. She carried herself like royalty. To a girl like me who'd lost her own mother at such a young age, she made a profound impression on me. She always spoke so kindly about my mom which meant so much.

Edie, dressed for the golf course or coming from the golf course, looked like a model. Other women on the golf course looked positively frumpy in comparison. Your mom--and your dad--always possessed a level of glamour so uncharacteristic to Forest.

The last time I was at the house to visit your mom was during one of Andy's visits to Ohio. We went to Upper to see where Jeff worked and to see he and Betsy's house. Remember that, Jeff? It was a very memorable afternoon.

But then, that was true of anytime I spent around Edie. I recall being fascinated with something as simple as the way she shaped her bed pillows and how it made the room look so special. Little things like that are why I'll never forget her.

The Edie I remember was so gracious. I cherish having known her. Offering sympathy doesn't seem like enough. I'm extending all my love and prayers to you and your families. I'm thankful that she's at peace now.

Love you guys,

“ Dear Jeff and Betsy,
It's been years and years since we've talked, but your Mom's name was in the paper today. She was so kind to me when my leg fell through the ice at the Forest pond. Remember that day? My thoughts and prayers are with you. May our Lord bless you, your family and your Mom with His peace.

Sincerely,
