“ Proverbs 15:13-15 "A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance". "A merry heart hath a continual feast". You could see the "merriment" and Joy of the Lord on Edna's face. She gave of herself to others in the hope they could have the same joy. Her desire was for her children to know the joy, peace and love that is found in Jesus. We were three months apart in age. When I talked with her two weeks ago, she said she was walking with a Shepherds Crook but, "I'm fine". I will miss her greatly, Audrey Jacks Piehl, Sister-in-law.

“ We have so many memories of running around Edna's house and adventures in the car with Mom and Edna. She helped make our childhood one of fun and wonder. I hope she and Mom are both having a cup of coffee together again.

“ She was a beautiful soul inside and out. She was my daughter's Sunday School Teacher. She had a beautiful smile. Everytime she saw myself or husband she hugged us and said I love you when are you coming back to church. A bit feisty but loving. Heaven gained a beautiful angel.

“ Most of the time our family sat right in front of Sis. Jacks and Courtney at church. She was faithful and dedicated. She loved children. She was also faithful to give out those beautiful birthday and anniversary cards. She made me feel loved.

“ Sis Jacks was such a feisty lady! Which made me like her even more. She had such a big heart and greeted each person as they passed by her at church. She will definitely be missed by those who knew her.
