“ Andrea, Keith and Jeremy I am so sorry! I just talked to your dad last Sunday! He was coming out of the pharmacy. I was floored when I heard he was gone. He was the last of that generation and I will miss him. Again, I am so sorry.

“ Ed was a few years older than me but we often found ourselves at the same baseball diamond. Whether at the ball diamond behind the school or the diamond behind our house.
For a few years we played in a softball league with Ed as our coach/manager. Ed was a friend of my dad and mom. I know that he checked on mom after our dad passed away.
That did not surprise me because he was that guy that looked out for everybody.

He will be missed!

“ He was a very good and giving person. I remember when I got my house, he showed up with paint and drop cloth and said "I am here to paint". He painted almost every room in the house without me even asking him. He later cooked chili in a pot over a fire in back yard. His chili (and beef and noodles) was very good. He took me to a Cleveland Browns game and wouldn't let me pay for the ticket. He also loved Ohio State football. I remember watching the Ohio State vs Georgia game, that the referees stole from Ohio State with him. He will be missed and watching football from Heaven.

“ Our sincere sympathies to each of you. You were blessed with great parents. We remember going with your parents in 1970 to the Kentucky Derby. We sat on the infield. Your mom and I did not wear pretty dresses or big beautiful hats. Paul said your dad waited in line to bet a long time. He said he won around $15.00. After that Ed and Paul went to Scioto Downs in Columbus to the horse races a couple times. Ed was one of the good guys in the community. May each of you be blessed with wonderful memories. Memories are powerful ❤️.

“ Ed blessed our church (Big Oak) many years as Santa. He touched many generations portraying the Jolly Man in the Red Suit. He was active in many other ways as well. He will be missed.

“ A loss to the Wharton community. What a great guy your father was, always had a ready smile, always willing to lend a hand. He was a kind, sweet soul and I will miss bumping into him at the post office.
