“ Many prayers for the family. I grew up in Upper living across the street from Elaine's parents on Wyandot Ave and attending the EUB church which later became Trinity. Knew both Elaine and Franklin well. Have lived in Findlay for almost 43 years but until my Mom (Louise Russell) died in 2012, spent much time there (Upper).

“ I enjoyed visiting with her and Franklin when I delivered the Sunday DVD's so they could view our Sunday Service since they were unable to attend. She always noticed my husband and I in the choir and would let us know when we had missed a Sunday. She always hugged me and was glad when I stopped in. I will miss her!!

“ Elaine was a sweet, kind person who remained faithful in her love for our Lord, even though she bore overwhelming affliction for many years. I am honored to have known her and to have personally witnessed the wonderful bond she shared with her husband of so many years. Elaine will be greatly missed in this world, but she is now in that much better place.
