“ Emily was the sweetest and kindest woman I have met. Emily was the mother to one if the greatest, sweetest, most caring, loving man I know. Without her I would have never met David. Emily your leaving a big hole in hearts of all the ones who loved u and are gonna be so dearly missed. You were a loving wife and a great mother and Im sure you were a dear friend to many. May you sing with angels and be waiting with a smile to greet us all one day. Rest in peace beautiful soul...

“ Emily knew no stranger and treated no one as such. Everyone was welcome to sit down and talk or to have a meal. I had a lot of meals and gathered great knowledge from a wonderful woman/mother in that house. From the first time I was asked for a sleep over in fourth grade to graduation I was one of her kids and was treated as such. I will miss this woman and all the love she gave till the day I get to walk threw those gates and see her again..... Love you MOM, CS
