“ Fay and I were friends for a long time, He and I were both machinists. My best memory was of him standing in church after the tragic lose of a grandchild, was his new joy of having a grandchild just born. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away: were his words.

We shared in his other heartbreaks in recent years. Our sympathy to the family at his loss.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Fay's passing. He was such such a nice man. We truly enjoyed his friendship as he and your mom Florine attended our church at New Life Assembly of God while my dad, Howard Spriggs, was pastor. We now reside in Sevierville, TN and were unable to attend his services. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Love to you.

“ Elaine and Darwin,

So sorry I cannot attend your dad's funeral. I myself am a resident of Birchaven in Findlay in the rehab unit. I had back surgery 3 weeks ago and when they stood me up to walk, I couldn't. I was in a lot of pain in my right foot and knee. I was in the hospital for 6 days and then Lynn brought me to Birchaven and I've been here for 2 weeks. I'm hoping to be home by the end of the month or soon after.

Too bad Fay couldn't have come to the reunion this summer to see everyone one last time. He's in heaven now with your mom.

*Sympathies,
