*We love you,
We miss you so much
Your love and your kindness
Your soft gentle touch.*

With sadness and tears
We had many good memories
You will always be near.*

Tears fell from the sky
Our hearts filled with sorrow

“ Aunt Florency,
I will miss your smiling face and gentle touch. I treasure the memories of catching fire flies and playing clothes pins during the 2 weeks spent in Ohio with Janny when I was growing up. Now you get to visit with Dad for as long as you want.
Love you,
Kathy

“ My Dear Sister Florence---I was always known to you as simply Nonnie and to me you were known as Gongee. Something we shared all thru my life.
You were and always will be a blessing to me and my family. You had a wonderful gift of caring and interest in everyone and what they were up to. This was clear in our sometimes extra long chats.
We will miss your kind and gentle soul very much.
Your Brother John and family.

“ Flo and Chuck were always happy and fun neighbors. I remember Flo playing the piano and trying to teach all of us kids; chop sticks was all I learned!! She will be greatly missed by family and friends but I know the love, laughs and memories she helped each of us make will live on in each of us until we go to be with LORD.
