“ I remember going to Lake Erie camping with Uncle John, Aunt Francis, mom and dad. I think at that time it was Lynn, Johnny and Joe. We always had a good time. Your Dad and Aunt Francis were always so much in love! And they raised 4 kids as loving and nurturing as they were! How lucky we were to have them in our lives! You will be missed, but I'm sure Uncle John was right there to greet her. ❤️

“ Aunt Francis was very quiet. She did all things without needing attention or reward. I always loved the way your Dad showed his love for your Mom. Love you all

“ My mom was a mom to many of my friends without hesitation. She stepped up when needed even though she was very shy. I have so many memories of her loving deeds and will pass them on to my children and grandchildren. Her legacy and morals will follow for generations to come. I believe god did put her on this earth to take care of us all. Love you mom ❤️ forever in my heart and memories
