“ Mr. McCulloch was such an amazing person and we are so thankful he was with us at Ridgemont for 4 years. I have so many amazing memories with him from those years, from band camp and so much more. It was so nice being able to just laugh with him and have fun, and he was always there for us even after leaving Ridgemont. It really showed you how amazing he was and how much he still cared. Thank you Mr. McCulloch for being such an amazing teacher, mentor, and friend, and for making an impact on my life and many others.

“ When I was sad, or upset, Mr. McCulloch would always find a way to make me smile (or anyone for that matter.) If he knew you were upset he'd do jazz hands at you and tell you it was his goal for the day to make you smile. And he never once failed. He was an incredible soul and was so strong for his students, even tho he obviously had a life going on, he never failed to keep smiling through it all.

“ I am the elementary music teacher at Madison-Plains. Dan shared my music room with me during 6th grade band. I got to know Dan for just a short period of time, but he was so very kind and respectful. He cared a great deal for his students and staff. He was always so kind and thoughtful. He will be truly missed by all. God bless and prayers to his family and friends. I will be thinking of you all in the next few days as you lay this beautiful person to rest. ❤️🙏

“ After our pep rally last Friday, staff members talked about how great the band sounded! I keep hearing about how much the students liked Mr. McCulloch! I sincerely appreciate the effort Mr. McCulloch put into cultivating professional relationships with our Middle School and HS students. It takes a special person. When the pain of missing Dan feels like it's too tightly squeezing your soul, remember that he knew his purpose and fulfilled it well. Honor Dan by finding your purpose in Christ Jesus and living your best life for Him.

“ Mr. McCulloch was my band director for my freshman year and sophomore year. It hurt to hear that he was gone and that he would never be able to see us perform again. Mr. McCulloch will be missed dearly not just by his students but by the community as well. Fly high Mr. McCulloch we love and miss you 🕊️
