“ George was a wonderful brother-in-law to me and treated me like real family as each of you have over the years. We don't have George anymore but when you think about it don't you all have some wonderful memories? Just be secure in the fact that you were all loved very much. We will all miss him but we can sure know that he was not a selfish man and was always ready to show that he cared - So just think about the good times and how much you loved him in return. God bless you all.
