“ Grandpa- You are the only grandpa I've ever had and I loved you so much even when it wasn't easy. I will miss you picking on me and talking to you. I will always miss you and love you. I will miss painting the hummingbirds with you over the summer..but they will get done i promise. I am so happy to have gotten the chance to go to Pigeon Forge with you and grandma this past summer and have great memories with you. You will not be there to see me graduate or get married but you will be in my heart and that's all that matters <3 It will be hard going to visit grandma and know that you won't be there but we will eventually be okay. We will all take good care of grandma!!! I love you so much grandpa!!!! Love----Allayna
