“ Glenn was such an amazing and kind person. He helped anyone and everyone he could. He was one of the few people I knew I could trust and count on no matter what. He touched so many people lives, he will never be forgotten. It still doesn't seem real. God only takes the best.

“ Glenn welcomed me to the family with open arms. My fondest memories of Glenn definitely would be the New Years Eve we spent at Hollie n Jose s, the family holidays, our wedding reception (he gave me a big hug) and just shootin the breeze at our apartment, watchin you tube eatin chinese or pizza <3 I was blessed to have met him, glad to be a part of his amazing family. Lily, Zach, Hailey and Solomon will miss you so very much, as well as my husband and I. We love you Uncle Glenn.

“ I am so sorry for your loss...I met Glen through Debbie.

Glenn was a sweet loveable man and absolutely adored Debbie and Josh's children.

They think the world of him...they will miss their best friend!

My thoughts and prayers are with all of his family and friends.

Thanks for all our conversations, and for being so nice to me and my girls.

Rest in peace our friend.
