“ Dear Ann, Bob, & families - I was so sorry to hear about your mom. Just recently in November, we came back for a short visit & went to visit our own parents in the cemetery. I've often wondered how Helen was doing. You were fortunate to have for such a long wonderful life.

Our prayers & sympathy go out to you.

“ Dear Family of Helen Cooper:

Ron and I want to extend our deepest sympathy in the loss of your dear mother/grandmother. We met Helen at Big Oak Church years ago. She was such a friendly soul, and made us feel so welcome. She made a friend of everyone she met. She loved each of you so much and was always speaking with pride when she mentioned your names.

May God comfort you and help you during this time of loss being thankful to Him for her Christian witness and love in your lives!

In Christ,

Ron and Mary Tangeman

“ Dear Robert and Ann,

It was sad news to learn of your mom's passing. Yet I know that she enjoyed a long life with a loving family. Helen touched many lives in wonderful ways and will be remembered fondly by all who knew her, myself included. With heartfelt prayers for peace and comfort to both of you, your children and your grandchildren, I remain,

Sincerely,
