“ My deepest sympathy to Abby's family. I knew Abby when she was Branch Mgr. at our Ontario Library. She was a good friend throughout the time she was there and always kept in touch through e-mails afterwards, sharing our love for little animals. She was such a good, kind person, gone way too soon.

“ Heather, Nikki, everyone,

I was saddened to hear about Abby's passing. I knew we were very close in age, but I had no idea we were born only 18 days apart. To this day, I'm still not certain of how we were related, but when all the first cousins were together at Grandma and Grandpa Ringle's house in Attica, Nikki and Abby were usually right there with us; playing freeze tag, hide and seek, climbing the apple trees and eating green apples until our stomachs hurt; all fond memories from my childhood. You were simply two more cousins to me, having a good time. Like so many of us, we re-connected through social media, and even though it has been years since I saw her, I got a small glimpse into her world. It is obvious that the critter's of the world lost a champion of their cause. May the family find peace in the days ahead.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Abby's family. I knew Abby when she worked for Dayton Metro Library. Abby was such a kind and gentle soul and we shared our love of animals. We kept in email contact over the years and I really cherished our friendship. I feel very fortunate to have known Abby and very proud to be a friend of hers. Heaven surely has another angel and she will truly be missed. Mary Wagner

“ My deepest sympathies to Abby's family and friends. Abby's passing was a real shock to me. We both worked for the Miami-Dade Public Library System. I did not work directly with her but we worked in the same building. She really was a kind and gentle soul. She truly loved working for our literacy program. May God Bless her.

“ Abby was always such a kind soul to me all throughout my 25 years of living. She never missed a birthday, Christmas, or monumental milestone in my life. She was always there for me during many of my accomplishments in life when she could be even though she was living in Florida for most of them: Baptism, Graduations, and my wedding. Even though I didn't see a lot of her growing up, she was always active in my life. When my mother became ill 2 1/2 years ago, our relationship really blossomed and when my mother passed away last year, Abby became an even bigger motherly figure to me than she had been in the past. She was the best Godmother a person could ever ask for and I truly loved her very much as a mother and as a friend. I know you and my mom are having such a blast up there in Heaven. I really miss the both of you, but I know you two are no longer suffering. Thank you for everything you have done for me Abby. I love you.

“ Ms. Abby was one of the kindest individuals that I met in my life. She really cared for and loved people. I admired her passion for lifelong learning and overall commitment to literacy. I knew her because she was a great colleague of mine at the Miami Dade Public Library. She trained some of our staff on the Project L.E.A.D. Program. She was a wonderful teacher and fulfilled God's purpose for her short life. Her gentle spirit will be missed. May she rest in peace.

“ I am shocked at Abby's passing. I was one of her tutors for Project LEAD at the Miami-Dade Library. She was always helpful and so dedicated to her work. She will be missed.

“ Abby was such a sweet and gentle soul. She spoiled our boys rotten with all kinds of goodies and was such a compassionate supporter of animals. She was always full of ideas on how to make things better. We are sad to know she is no longer on this earth but know she lives on through the lives she has touched.

“ Abby was first a classmate, then a friend and eventually my step-sister. She was very sweet to my mother Dianna, and extremely supportive to our family during Mom's final weeks. I have always been touched by how obvious her devotion was to her father, my step-father Robert. I always thought she shared his quiet but ornery wit. And it goes without saying how much she loved her Sarah. It is her warmth, compassion and understanding that I will reflect on most when remembering her. Peace.
