“ Jim, you always had a joke or an extremely obscure reference that made me scratch my head on numerous occasions. I learned so much as your apprentice in the 90s, and later as we worked together at Whirlpool. So I will remember you as a friend, teacher and occasional pain in the butt!. Remember, them r ducks!!. “ You always made me smile and laugh with all your jokes and stories you would tell, I never knew when to take you serious, I will never forget when you had you cell phone up to your ear and I walked by you and you looked at me and said, " Hey it's for you" and handed the phone to me, I looked at you with a puzzled look and took the phone and said "Hello". You laughed so hard, then you never let me forget it even month's later. You are a Beautiful person and you will be missed.
