“ I was sad to read of Jim's passing in the paper. I didn't realize he had been sick. The main thing I remember about you all (other than Doug being Harry's friend and Babs being Carolyn's friend) is the blizzard of 1978. When you were brought to our house on snowmobiles. Being only kids then, we had a great time! And of course Jim and Dad worked together for many years. You're in my prayers.##imported-begin##Kathy (Fulk) Coy##imported-end##

“ Jim and I went to Wolf Creek Methodist Church where his mother taught our Sunday School Class. We also attended elementary school together. Jim was always kind and thoughtful of others. His Lifetime Memorial DVD shows that this kindness followed him throughout his life. What a beautiful family. “ I am shocked and grieved to hear of Jim's passing. I recall him very well during the time I worked on the Dorn Farm during the summer of 1955. Even though I have lost contact with Jim over the years, his passing brings me sorrow as a close relative of mine is gone.
