“ I adored Mrs. Dean as the wonderful library lady and as a fellow churchgoer. She was always so kind and sweet - never saw her in a down mood, though I'm sure she must have had dark days as we all do. I hope that she knew how everyone loved her so.##imported-begin##Angela Risner##imported-end##

There are not enough words to describe this wonderful woman...she was a friend, servant and encourager of everyone she met. I hold a special place in my heart for Jane. I remember the very nice "lady" from the library....and everyone just loved her! Of course I knew Jane from just being in the community as well. She and I used to talk about my mom and the strength she had after my Dad passed away so young. She used to say she was amazed at my Mom and my Mom would say she was amazed by her. We will miss you Jane...all of my prayers and thoughts through this time...God is the lifter of your hearts and he will keep you and hold you close...if you even need anything or just to chat...don't ever hesitate....love you all and remember you all carry her with you...
