That was beautiful...

Jaleen Geiser - July 18, 2015 at 03:57 PM

This is amazing video of a child so full of life a life that was cut so short & now we are left with a huge whole in every heart that knew. I pray for this horrible loss & grieving that u all are going through right now & in the days to come. Losing someone close to u is always hard but losing a child is more pain than one should have to endure so I am asking God to send his angels to all of u right now & in the days to come that will be hard as well. I ask u father to give them peace that only u can give. Praise God for this little guy's life that is gone to soon.

May Gods loving love be with you all. There are going to be soo many questions with no answers. I know, I have been there. All you can do is be strong and carry on. Jasper would expect no less. I knew him from soccer and also Adrien. He was always full of life and fun. Keep that in mind in these upcoming months.

Eric, Tammy, and Erica: please know that my prayers are with you. Jasper was a great kid! Friendly, funny, and always willing to give a big smile in the hallway! I never had the privilege of teaching him in the classroom, though I did get to know him while working with the 7th grade band. Thank you for raising such a nice guy and for sharing him with the rest of us. God bless you.

*There are no words to ease your pain. We simply come alongside you and are silent. You may express your grief in any and all ways....God understands and is aware of your raw emotions, whys and reoccurring shock each morning that this is truly real. We knew Jasper from Morgan County Rendezvous. He was one of my favorites. I was just drawn to him. Was it his smile, his heart that could be seen in how he treated others, his gentle spirit? All of these and more.
With prayers and caring, Bill and Suzette Sand*
