“ She was also a teacher at headstart in upper. 2 of my kids had her. My first memory of her was when she first started, she stated her name was miss Jean. Then she looked at the kids and said, mean Jean. Lol. She was one of the nicest teacher I know, unless you pushed her too far. That was really hard to do. My kids enjoyed having her as a teacher and I loved talking with her. She will be missed greatly.
