“ We send our sincere condolences to the family and friends of Jean Ann Hughes. Bill and I were very sad to hear that she had passed away. She was such a sweet person.

On February 7, 1966, I gave birth to our daughter Stephanie and on February 8, 1966, Jean Ann gave birth to her twin sons James and John. Jean Ann and I were roommates at Shelby Memorial Hospital.

I let her hold our Stephanie because her twins James and John were so tiny that she couldn't hold them yet. They were soon transferred to the Mansfield General NNICU.

For a few precious moments we shared the beginnings of our families. I will always treasure those moments.

Love and prayers to all, Joan (Robertson) Sexton##imported-begin##Mrs. William B. Sexton##imported-end##

“ I don't know if I have the words to express our sadness, we are so sorry to hear of Jean's passing. What a good woman Jean Hughes was all her days, kind, thoughtful and so caring. Jean was loved by so many. We feel blessed that we knew her and that she touched our lives like she did so many others. Our hearts are heavy for the family that Jean loved so much. Her children and her grandchildren and Jim were her life. We will not forget the gift of knowing Jean...##imported-begin##Bill & Bev Brown##imported-end##
